

Contents

Editorial

Ethics, philosophy and clinical trials

---

Attitudes to research ethical committees
Pauline Allen and W E Waters

Research on human subjects: Australian ethics committees take tentative steps
L W Osborne

Informed consent: what does it mean?
Hon Mr Justice M D Kirby

Experimentation with human subjects: a critique of the views of Hans Jonas
Arthur Schafer

Debate

Basic problems in controlled trials
R Burkhardt and G Kienle

Problems in controlled trials – a critical response
D W Vere

Response
R Burkhardt and G Kienle

Reply to response
D W Vere

---

The practical and ethical defects of surgical randomised prospective trials
Arnold Byer

Commentary
Michael Baum

Symposium

59 Vivisection, morals and medicine 94
R G Frey

61 Vivisection, morals, medicine: commentary from an antivivisectionist philosopher 98
T L S Sprigge

66 Response 101
R G Frey

69 Vivisection, morals, medicine: commentary from a vivisectioning professor of pharmacology 102
Sir William Paton

76 Response 104
R G Frey

---

80 Medical ethics: who decides what? 105
Michael Kottow

85 Contributors to this issue 108

Jewish medical ethics – a brief overview 109
89 Sir Immanuel Jakobovits

Report from America

89 Public debate on issues of life and death 113
Bernard Towers

---

Book reviews 116

90 Thematic review of past issues 119

Correspondence 126

92 Medical groups 127

Notice to contributors 128